Abstract: Moduli spaces of solutions to non-linear elliptic PDE's such as instantons in gauge theory are fundamental for the construction of counting invariants. Using information about the solution space provided by the index theory of an approximating family of linear differential operators, we explain our results on orientations for moduli spaces, including new developments in G2-holonomy.